

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force its stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. The public interest is non partisan. Sinclairs actions are partisan.

Free advertising by media evades all the campaign spending laws of our United States, in unfair and should be prohibited.